The people who sign as Tenant and these other people may live in the home: _____. No more than _____ people may live in the home.

A child born to, adopted by or placed with Tenant during this lease may live in the home. Tenant will tell Landlord so this list stays correct.

5. The home

Landlord rents to Tenant the home at _____, in Nevada (the "Home"). Tenant may also use any shared areas of the property that are meant for tenants, such as hallways, laundry rooms and yards, subject to the rules in this lease.

6. How long this lease lasts

Length of this lease (tick one):

☐ This lease starts on _____ and ends on _____.

☐ This lease starts on _____ and continues month to month until one side ends it as this lease describes.

If the Home is not ready for Tenant on the start date, Tenant owes no rent until it is. If it is still not ready 7 days after the start date, Tenant may cancel this lease in writing and get back everything Tenant has paid. Tenant keeps any other right the law gives in this situation.

7. When the term ends

When the fixed term ends (tick one):

☐ When the term ends, this lease continues month to month on the same terms unless either side has given the notice this lease requires.

☐ This lease ends on the end date and Tenant will move out by that day.

☐ This lease ends on the end date unless both sides sign a renewal.

If Tenant stays after this lease has ended without Landlord's agreement, Tenant owes rent for each day of the stay at this lease's daily rate, and Landlord may use the process the law allows to regain the Home.

8. Rent

Rent is $_____* a month, due in advance on the _____ day of each month. This one figure is the most Tenant can be charged as rent in any month, and it already includes every mandatory fee this lease lists. Tenant does not need a reminder to pay it.

☐ * This figure does not include _____. The public utility is unable to contract with Tenant directly for this service in the Home. The monthly bill from the public utility for this service in the Home will be charged to Tenant as a monthly fee in an amount equal to the cost of the monthly bill, separate from this figure. The utility's name and telephone number: _____.

☐ * The Home is subject to a master-metered water system. A fee for water service will be charged to Tenant as a monthly fee in an amount equal to the cost for the water service provided in the Home, separate from this figure.

If the due day is a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday, rent received on the next business day is on time.

Pay rent to _____ at _____.

9. How to pay

Tenant may pay rent by:_____.

Fee-free payment: Tenant may always pay rent, with no fee and without giving bank account details, by: _____.

Paying online (tick one):

☐ Rent cannot be paid online.

☐ Tenant may pay rent online with no fee.

☐ Tenant may pay rent online. Paying online is optional, and the fee of_____ applies only to a payment Tenant chooses to make that way. It is not part of the rent.

If Tenant pays rent or another charge online, any fee Landlord charges for doing so is not more than the operator of the website or portal charges for its use.

10. First month's rent

If this lease starts after the first day of a month, the first payment covers only the days from the start date to the end of that month: $_____. If no amount is written here, the full rent is due from the start.

11. Late fee

If rent is not received within _____ days after the due date, Tenant owes a late fee of _____. The fee is charged once for each late payment and is never added to another late fee. No late fee is owed on rent Tenant lawfully withholds. If no amount is written here, no late fee is charged.

In any tenancy longer than week to week, a late fee cannot be charged until at least 3 calendar days after the due date. A late fee cannot be more than 5 percent of the periodic rent, and its maximum cannot be increased because of an earlier late fee.

12. Returned payments

If a check or other payment is returned unpaid, Tenant owes a returned-payment fee of $_____, and still owes the payment itself. If no amount is written here, no returned-payment fee is charged.

13. Partial payments

Partial payments (tick one):

☐ Landlord does not have to accept less than the full amount due. There is no charge for offering a partial payment.

☐ Landlord accepts partial payments, with no extra charge. Tenant still owes the rest by the due date.

A payment goes first to the oldest rent owed, then to other amounts owed. Accepting a partial payment does not cancel what is still owed, and does not give up any right unless Landlord agrees in writing or the law says otherwise.

14. Other fees

Any other fee is listed here, with what it is for. If nothing is written here, this lease requires no other fee.

Fee: _____ Amount: $_____ ☐ each month ☐ one time, refundable ☐ one time, not refundable
It is for: _____

Fee: _____ Amount: $_____ ☐ each month ☐ one time, refundable ☐ one time, not refundable
It is for: _____

Fee: _____ Amount: $_____ ☐ each month ☐ one time, refundable ☐ one time, not refundable
It is for: _____

A payment that secures unpaid rent, damage or cleaning is a security deposit, whatever it is called, and it is refundable as the deposit is. The one exception is a nonrefundable cleaning charge in a reasonable amount.

15. What is due at move-in Due before Tenant moves in. If no amount is written on a line, nothing is due for it.

First month's rent: $_____

Security deposit: $_____

Pet deposit: $_____

Key deposit: $_____

Last month's rent paid up front: $_____

Other: $_____

Total due at move-in: $_____

16. Security deposit

Tenant pays a security deposit of $_____. It remains Tenant's money, held against what Tenant may owe at the end of this lease. It is not rent, and Tenant may not use it as the last month's rent unless Landlord agrees in writing.

Landlord will not demand or receive a security deposit or a surety bond, or a combination of them, including the last month's rent, whose total amount or value is more than 3 months' periodic rent.

When the tenancy ends, Landlord may claim from the deposit only what is reasonably needed to remedy unpaid rent, to repair damage Tenant caused other than normal wear, and to pay the reasonable cost of cleaning the Home.

Tenant gets back the rest. To speed that up, Tenant should give Landlord a forwarding address in writing when moving out. Any other deposit this lease lists is handled the same way. Where the law limits deposits, it may count toward that limit.

No later than 30 days after the tenancy ends, Landlord will give Tenant an itemized, written accounting of the deposit and return what remains, by handing it to Tenant at the place rent is paid or by mailing it to Tenant's present address or, if that is unknown, Tenant's last known address.

17. Where the deposit is held

Landlord will hold and account for the deposit as Nevada law requires.

18. Rent increases

During a fixed term, rent stays the same unless both sides agree in writing.

Landlord may raise the rent only by serving Tenant with a written notice 60 days before the first payment that will be increased, or 30 days before in a periodic tenancy of less than a month.

19. Using the home

The Home is Tenant's private home. Quiet work from home that brings no customers, signs or extra traffic is fine. Any other business use needs Landlord's written agreement.

20. Guests

Guests are welcome. A guest who stays more than _____ days in a row becomes someone who lives in the Home, and needs Landlord's written agreement first, which will not be unreasonably refused. Tenant is responsible for how guests behave and for any damage they cause.

21. Subletting and transfer

Tenant may not sublet the Home or transfer this lease without Landlord's written agreement. Landlord will consider each request fairly and answer in writing within a reasonable time.

22. Short-term rentals

Tenant may not rent out the Home or any room for short stays, through a listing site or otherwise, without Landlord's written agreement.

23. Everyone is responsible together

Each person who signs as Tenant is responsible for all of what this lease requires, including the whole rent, and not only a share. Landlord may ask any one of them, or all of them, for what is owed. This does not take away any right the law gives a person to leave a lease early, or to be released from it.

24. Pets

Pets (tick one):

☐ No pets may live in or visit the Home without Landlord's written agreement.

☐ These pets may live in the Home: _____. Tenant will keep them under control, clean up after them and pay for any damage they cause beyond normal wear and tear.

If pets are allowed: the pet deposit is $_____ and pet rent is $_____ a month. If no amount is written here, none is charged. A pet deposit is handled like the security deposit. Where the law limits deposits, it may count toward that limit.

25. Assistance animals

An assistance animal for a person with a disability is not a pet. The pet rules, pet deposits and pet rent do not apply to it, though Tenant may be responsible for damage it causes, as the law provides. Landlord will consider requests as fair-housing law requires.

26. Smoking and vaping

Smoking and vaping (tick one):

☐ No one may smoke or vape anything inside the Home, on its balconies or patios, or in shared indoor areas.

☐ Smoking and vaping are allowed inside the Home. They are not allowed in shared indoor areas. Tenant pays for any damage beyond normal wear and tear, including burns and lasting odor.

27. Parking and vehicles

Parking (tick one):

☐ No parking comes with this lease.

☐ This parking comes with the Home: _____. Vehicles parked there must be in working order and legally registered. A vehicle may be towed only as the law allows.

28. Storage

☐ This storage comes with the Home: _____. Tenant may not keep anything dangerous there.

29. Keys and locks

At move-in Tenant receives:_____. Tenant returns all keys at move-out.

Tenant will not change or add a lock without Landlord's written agreement, unless the law gives Tenant the right to, and will give Landlord a key to any new lock unless the law says otherwise.

If Tenant loses a key, or asks to be let in, the charge for that help is_____. If no amount is written here, there is no charge.

Except through the eviction process the law provides, Landlord will not lock Tenant out, remove doors or belongings, or shut off a utility to make Tenant leave or pay.

30. House rules

Tenant will follow any written rules Landlord has given Tenant. A rule must be fair, clear and apply to all tenants alike. A later rule that materially changes this lease needs Tenant's written agreement, unless the law allows it on notice.

Community rules (tick one):

☐ No homeowners association or community rules apply to the Home.

☐ Homeowners association or community rules apply to the Home. Landlord has given Tenant a copy, and Tenant will follow them.

A rule binds Tenant only if it is fair and explicit and Tenant has notice of it. A rule made after Tenant has signed that materially changes this lease applies to Tenant only with Tenant's written consent or after 30 days' advance written notice.

31. Changes to the Home

Tenant needs Landlord's written agreement before painting, or making any lasting change to the Home. Small nail holes for pictures are normal wear and tear. A Tenant with a disability may ask to make a change the person needs, as fair-housing law allows.

32. Respect for neighbors

Tenant, Tenant's household and guests will not disturb neighbors' peaceful enjoyment of their homes, make the property unsafe or use the property for anything illegal.

33. Move-in condition record

☐ Before Tenant moves in, Landlord and Tenant will do a move-in inspection and sign the attached Move-in Condition Record, a move-in checklist of the condition of the Home and everything Landlord provides in it.

☐ Before Tenant moves in, Landlord and Tenant will do a move-in inspection and sign the inspection report, a move-in checklist of the condition of the Home and everything Landlord provides in it. The signed report is part of this lease.

Each keeps a copy. Tenant may add anything found in the first 7 days by writing to Landlord. The record is used at move-out to tell damage from what was already there.

34. What Landlord takes care of

Landlord will keep the Home fit to live in, as the law requires: its structure, roof, doors and windows; its plumbing, electricity, heating and hot water; anything else Landlord provides in it; and any shared areas.

Tenant does not pay for repairs that are Landlord's duty, unless Tenant, someone in Tenant's household or a guest caused the problem through a deliberate or careless act, and the law allows the charge.

35. What Tenant takes care of Tenant will keep the Home clean and safe, put out trash and recycling, use its fixtures and appliances properly, and promptly report anything that needs repair. Tenant pays to fix damage beyond normal wear and tear caused by Tenant, Tenant's household or guests.

36. How to ask for a repair

Tenant should ask for repairs in writing, by message or email, to the contact named above, and by phone in an emergency. Landlord will respond within a reasonable time, and sooner when health or safety is at stake. Nothing here takes away a right the law gives Tenant if a repair is not made.

37. Reporting a problem to the authorities

Tenant may report a nuisance, or code violations of a building, safety or health code, to the local government office that handles them, or to the police if it is a crime.

For this address, that office is _____.

Landlord will not retaliate against Tenant for making a report in good faith.

38. Smoke and carbon monoxide alarms

The Home has working smoke alarms and, where the law requires them, carbon monoxide alarms. Tenant will test them regularly, leave them connected and tell Landlord at once if one is not working.

39. Appliances and furnishings

These come with the Home: _____. Landlord repairs them unless Tenant, Tenant's household or a guest caused the damage.

40. Pests and bed bugs

Tenant will keep the Home clean, tell Landlord promptly about any sign of pests or bed bugs, and cooperate with treatment. Landlord will deal with pests as the law requires, and Tenant pays only where Tenant's household or guests caused the problem and the law allows the charge.

41. Mold and moisture

Tenant will use fans and open windows to control moisture, wipe up water promptly and tell Landlord promptly about any leak or mold. Landlord will fix leaks and the moisture problems that are Landlord's duty.

42. Utilities and services

Tenant pays for these utilities:_____. Landlord pays for these utilities: _____.

These services come with the rent: _____.

Tenant will open any account in Tenant's own name that Tenant is responsible for, and keep it paid, so that service is not cut off.

43. Yard and snow

Yard and snow, for a house (tick one):

☐ Tenant takes care of the yard and clears snow and ice from the Home's walkways.

☐ Landlord takes care of the yard and clears snow and ice from the Home's walkways.

44. Renters insurance

Renters insurance (tick one):

☐ This lease does not require renters insurance, and Landlord recommends it. Landlord's insurance does not cover Tenant's belongings.

☐ Tenant will carry renters insurance with at least $_____ of liability coverage and show proof when asked. Landlord's insurance does not cover Tenant's belongings.

45. Belongings and responsibility for harm

Landlord does not insure Tenant's belongings. Nothing in this lease excuses Landlord, Landlord's agents or employees, or Tenant from responsibility for negligent or wrongful acts, or for anything else the law makes them responsible for.

46. Fire or other serious damage

If fire, flood or something else that Tenant did not cause makes the Home unsafe to live in, Tenant owes no rent for the time it cannot be lived in, and either side may end this lease by written notice, unless the law says otherwise. If only part cannot be used, the rent goes down fairly until it is repaired. Landlord will return the deposit as this lease describes.

47. When Landlord may enter

Landlord may enter the Home for the reasons the law allows, such as to inspect it, make repairs or agreed improvements, or show it to buyers, new tenants, lenders or workers, and will not use entry to harass Tenant.

Landlord may also enter peaceably to supply necessary or agreed services. Tenant will not unreasonably refuse consent to an entry for any of these reasons. Landlord may enter without Tenant's consent in an emergency.

Except in an emergency, Landlord will give Tenant at least 24 hours' notice of an intent to enter, and will enter only at reasonable times during normal business hours, unless Tenant expressly agrees to shorter notice or to another time for that particular entry.

48. Showing the Home

When the Home is for sale, or this lease is ending, Landlord may show it to buyers or new tenants under the entry rules above, and may put up a sign if the law allows.

49. Giving notice to move out

Either side may end a month-to-month tenancy by giving the other at least 30 days' written notice, or at least 7 days' written notice in a week-to-week tenancy. Neither this lease nor any other agreement shortens the notice the law requires of Landlord, and Tenant is not required to give a different notice than Landlord must give.

A notice must be in writing and say the date the tenancy ends.

50. Leaving early

☐ Tenant may end this lease early by giving _____ days' written notice and paying _____. Once Tenant has done that and moved out, Tenant owes no more rent after the date in the notice.

If Tenant moves out early with no right to, Landlord will make reasonable efforts to rent the Home again at a fair rent. Tenant owes Landlord's actual damages from the early move-out, as Nevada law allows, which can include rent until the Home is rented or the term ends, whichever comes first.

51. Military service

A Tenant who joins the military, or who is on active duty and receives orders for a permanent change of station or a deployment of 90 days or more, may end this lease early under the federal Servicemembers Civil Relief Act, by giving Landlord written notice and a copy of the orders. The Act also covers a servicemember's household in some cases. Landlord may not charge an early-termination fee for using this right.

52. Safety, and other rights to leave early

Whatever this lease says, if a tenant, cotenant or household member is a victim of domestic violence, harassment, sexual assault or stalking, the tenant or any cotenant may end this lease by written notice to Landlord that takes effect at the end of the current rental period or 30 days after the notice, whichever comes sooner. The notice must give the reason and come with the papers NRS 118A.345 lists, such as a protection order, a law enforcement report or the affidavit in NRS 118A.347. The events must have happened within the 90 days before the notice.

Whatever this lease says, a tenant who is 60 or older or who has a physical or mental disability, and who must relocate for care or treatment that cannot be provided in the Home, may end this lease on 30 days' written notice within 60 days after relocating. Such a tenant whose spouse or cotenant dies may end this lease as NRS

118A.340 provides. The notice must set out the facts and give reasonable verification. A cotenant may have the same rights, as that section provides.

53. If either side breaks this lease

If Tenant does not pay rent or breaks another term, Landlord will give Tenant the written notice the law requires, with any chance to fix the problem that the law gives. If it is not fixed, Landlord may go to court to end the tenancy and recover what is owed. Landlord will not remove Tenant or Tenant's belongings by force or by shutting off essential services, and will use only the steps the law allows, including the court process the law provides.

If Landlord breaks this lease or does not keep the Home fit to live in, Tenant has the rights and remedies the law gives. Neither side gives up a right by waiting to use it, unless the law says otherwise.

54. If Tenant leaves without notice, or leaves belongings

Landlord may treat the Home as abandoned, and deal with anything left behind, only as the law allows.

55. Moving out

When moving out, Tenant will remove all belongings, leave the Home clean and in the condition it was in at move-in apart from normal wear and tear, return all keys and give Landlord a forwarding address in writing. Tenant may ask to be present when Landlord inspects the Home, and Landlord will agree if it can reasonably be arranged, or as the law requires.

56. If the Home is sold

If the Home is sold, this lease stays in force. Landlord will tell Tenant in writing who the new owner is and where to pay rent, and will transfer the deposit as the law requires.

57. Attorney fees

☐ If Landlord and Tenant go to court over this lease, the side that wins may recover reasonable attorney fees and court costs, if the court awards them.

58. How notices are given

A notice under this lease must be in writing and delivered by hand, or sent by mail, to Tenant at the Home and to Landlord at the address for notices above. Email or text counts only if both sides have agreed to it in writing and the law allows it. Legal papers are served as the law requires.

59. The whole agreement

This lease and its attachments are the whole agreement. Changes must be in writing and signed by both sides. If any part conflicts with the law, the law controls, and the rest of this lease still applies. Nothing in this lease takes away a right that the law says cannot be given up.

60. Which law applies

Nevada law and any local law that applies to the Home govern this lease.

61. Fair housing

Landlord does not discriminate on any basis the law forbids, including race, color, religion, sex, disability, familial status or national origin. A Tenant with a disability may ask for a reasonable change in rules, services or the Home that the person needs, as fair-housing law provides, by writing to the contact for notices.

62. Signing electronically

Both sides may sign this lease electronically, and an electronic signature counts the same as one on paper. Anyone who would rather sign on paper may ask, and Landlord will arrange it.

63. Copies

Each Tenant receives a signed copy of this lease and its attachments, free of charge, when it is signed. Landlord will give another copy on request, within a reasonable time.

64. Language

If this lease was negotiated mainly in a language other than English, Tenant should ask for a translation, which the law requires in some places, and should ask for help with anything in this lease Tenant does not understand.

65. Lead-Based Paint Disclosure (homes built before 1978)

This section applies if the home was built before 1978, unless the home is exempt under federal law.☐ The home was built in 1978 or later, so this section does not apply.

Lead Warning Statement: Housing built before 1978 may contain lead-based paint. Lead from paint, paint chips, and dust can pose health hazards if not managed properly. Lead exposure is especially harmful to young children and pregnant women. Before renting pre-1978 housing, lessors must disclose the presence of known lead-based paint and/or lead-based paint hazards in the dwelling. Lessees must also receive a federally approved pamphlet on lead poisoning prevention.

Landlord's disclosure (tick one): ☐ Landlord knows of lead-based paint and/or lead-based paint hazards in the housing, as follows: _____. ☐ Landlord has no knowledge of lead-based paint and/or lead-based paint hazards in the housing.

Records and reports (tick one): ☐ Landlord has provided Tenant with all available records and reports pertaining to lead-based paint and/or lead-based paint hazards in the housing: _____. ☐ Landlord has no reports or records pertaining to lead-based paint and/or lead-based paint hazards in the housing.

Tenant's acknowledgment: Tenant has received copies of all information listed above and the pamphlet Protect Your Family From Lead in Your Home.

Agent's acknowledgment, if an agent acts for Landlord: The agent has informed Landlord of Landlord's obligations under 42 U.S.C. 4852d and is aware of the agent's duty to ensure compliance with 40 CFR Part 745, Subpart F.

Certification: By signing this Lease, each person signing certifies that, to the best of their knowledge, the information they have provided above is true and accurate. The dates of signature are those recorded with each signature on this Lease.

66. Children

Children in the Home (tick one):

☐ Children may live in the Home as part of Tenant's household, within the limit on the number of people in this lease.

☐ The Home is housing for older persons that federal fair-housing law allows to limit who lives there.

67. Public nuisance law (NRS 202.470)

Under NRS 202.470, it is a misdemeanor to commit or maintain a public nuisance for which no special punishment is prescribed, to willfully omit or refuse a legal duty to remove such a nuisance, or to let or allow the use of a building or part of one knowing that it is intended to be, or is being, used to commit or maintain such a nuisance.

68. Displaying the flag of the United States

As NRS 118A.325 provides, Landlord will not prohibit Tenant from displaying the flag of the United States within the part of the premises Tenant has the right to occupy and use exclusively. That means a flag made of cloth, fabric or paper, displayed from a pole or staff or in a window, in a manner consistent with 4 U.S.C. Chapter 1. This right does not cover commercial advertising, and Landlord may adopt rules that reasonably restrict where and how the flag is displayed.

69. Displaying religious or cultural items

As NRS 118A.327 provides, neither Landlord nor this lease will prohibit Tenant from displaying religious or cultural items on the entry door or doorframe of the Home, or otherwise in or on the Home. This does not cover a display with a total size greater than 36 by 12 square inches, or larger than the door, or one that threatens public health, safety or welfare, hinders opening or closing an entry door, violates any law, promotes discriminatory behavior, or contains anything obscene or otherwise illegal. Landlord may adopt policies that reasonably restrict where and how items are displayed.

If an entry door or doorframe needs maintenance, repair or replacement, Landlord may give Tenant at least 7 days' written notice (except in an emergency) and then, if Tenant agrees or does not answer within a reasonable time, take down a display while the work is done, store it with respect, and put it back within 72 hours after the work is finished. Landlord may instead require Tenant to take it down during the work, and Tenant may put it back within 72 hours after the work is finished, as that section provides.

70. Nevada contacts

The person named in this lease for notices and legal papers is in Nevada. The emergency number in this lease reaches a responsible person who lives in the county where the Home is, or within 60 miles of it. Landlord will keep this information current.

71. Foreclosure

☐ The property is the subject of foreclosure proceedings. Landlord told Tenant so in writing before Tenant signed this lease.

72. Rent during a government shutdown

A new or replacement pet needs Landlord's written agreement. Landlord may ask Tenant to remove a pet that seriously threatens health or safety, or that keeps disturbing neighbors after written warning, as the law allows.

An assistance animal for a person with a disability is not a pet, and this addendum does not apply to it.

Smoke-Free Addendum

This addendum is part of the lease. No one may smoke or vape anything inside the Home, on its balconies or patios, in shared indoor areas, or anywhere else on the property that Landlord has marked as smoke-free.
